In the case of Madakari Naik of Chitaldrug H.H. has been pleased to order that the general question regarding grant of permission to use insignias may be examined (before granting permission to individuals) and that with this object a list of persons using insignias has been prepared and sub. to Asst. 13) The general file relating to the case of Madakari Naik has been sent to Branch VII for favour of remarks and will be submitted as soon as it is received.

14) In the present case, the petitioner has produced no sanad from His Highness the Maharaja or order of Government in support of his claim to go in procession with the insignia mentioned by him. marriage does not seem to be a sufficient ground for granting him similar permission in this State. Nor does the fact that the people have no objection seem to be a sufficient ground for granting the permission. Further it is very significant that even in Joypur when the petitioner was not able to adduce any authority in support of his claim. The Magistrate who granted the license has expressly stated that no authority was produced. From a perusal of the papers produced by him, there is nothing to show that he was granted permission to use Saptapadi. "Navaji" is written does not appear to be an insignia but should be read with "Bhoja Bhajantri" and when so read, is said to mean "to perform with instruments of music".

15) If, however, the insignia mentioned viz, chatri, Saptapadi, Bhojabhajantri and Palaki are not considered sufficient importance, then Sanction may be accorded. Otherwise, the claim has to be refused.

18) As insignia none of the three ranks high.

1.Yellow Chatri.
2.Palaki.
3.Haftagiri.

Yellow Chatri is an ordinary honour while Palaki by itself need not even be considered as such. Haftagiri which is only a variation of Surepana though the highest of the three, is only a little above the ordinary. None of them can be said to be distinctly or exclusively royal insignia. Quite a large number of private individuals and Matadhipathis lay claim to these.

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

2a) In the present case, the circumstances are such that no strict proof of authority need be ~~in~~ insisted upon. The claimant Ramanappa Naik is not a subject of Mysore being only a temporary visitor. In such cases display of honours ~~are~~ is allowed without strict proof of origin if these were being used outside Mysore, provided that none of them belongs to the exclusive kind reserved to royalty or high personages deriving title from sovereign authority or that the display is not against local mamool or public sentiment. In the present case there seems to be some evidence that Ramanappa Naik was using Palaki and Chattri elsewhere though it is noticeable that no mention is made of Haftagiri.

2b) Further the occasion is one of marriage and it is not unusual for even common folk to display some mark or other in token of honour to the bridal party. It is important to see that the local feelings are not disturbed and in the present case the inhabitants have expressed no objection.

2c) Under these circumstances permission may be granted to the conduct of the procession with Yellow ~~Yellow~~ Chattri and Palaki. There is nothing to show that Ramanappa Naik had used Haftagiri at any time previously and this may therefore be declined.

S I R,

With reference to your official memorandum No.J.3009 dated 15th February 1917 forwarding for report a telegram from Molakalmuru registered No. J. 1832 dated 14th February 1917 from one Raja Hanumappa Naik, Inamdar, Karegudda, Nizam's state, re the granting of permission to use chatri during the marriage procession at Molakalmuru, I have the honor to state that one Raja Ramanappa Naik at first petitioned the Amildar of Molakalmuru Taluk for permission to use the marginally noted insignias during his visit to Molakalmuru in connection with a marriage. Thereupon the Amildar solicited my orders in his report No. 167 dated 6th January 1917 in the matter. The Amildar was directed to give an endorsement to the petitioner asking him to obtain the order of the Government in the matter of using the insignias within the Mysore State as the petitioner was a stranger to this District. Before the receipt of the endorsement issued by the Amildar the same person sent a petition to me on the 22nd January praying for permission to use the insignias during his visit to Molakalmuru and stating that he had been permitted by the Nizam to use them during the festivities and that he had the permission of the Taluk Magistrate of Raydrug to do so.

19 FEB 1917

As there was nothing to show the applicant's social status and as he had not produced any documents in support of his claim to use those insignias within the State, an endorsement was issued to him to obtain Government orders in the matter. Subsequent to the receipt of the endorsement issued by the Amildar of Molakalmuru, the applicant again sent in a second petition to this office on the 1st February 1917 statin that he had addressed the Government in the matter and praying for permission to go to Molakalmuru with those insignias when his attention was invited to the endorsement already issued to him from this office.

Beyond the two petitions (sent herewith) received from the applicant there are no other records in this office relating to the subject. The applications do not indicate any local source of information where enquiries could be made.

The telegram received with the reference under reply is herewith retransmitted.

S I R,

With reference to your official memorandum No.J.3128 dated 27th February 1917 forwarding copy of endorsement given to Raja Ramanappa Naik, Molakalmuru re permission to use Chatri &c during a marriage procession, I have the honor to state that the gentleman has since produced certain orders issued by the Taluk Magistrate of Devadurga, Raichur District, Nizam's Dominions, permitting him to use certain insignia viz Chatri, Baja bajantri, Navaji, palaki etc. The papers produced by him are sent herewith for perusal. The people of Molakalmuru have subscribed to a mahazar stating that they have no objection to the petitioner going in procession with the margirally noted insignia.

It is understood that the marriage on account of which the petitioner came to Molakalmuru has been celebrated and it only remains to carry out a ceremonial procession to conclude the festivities. In the circumstances the petitioner may be permitted to go in procession with chatri, baja bajantri and palaki. Aftagiri may also be allowed if there is no objection though I do not know if it is the same as "Navaji" referred to in the Devadurga Magistrate's license.
